

Notice: Cottage Food Sales

Any person or group seeking to sell “Cottage Foods” (food cooked or packaged at home), as defined by California Assembly Bills AB1252 and AB1616 and covered by the Riverside County Ordinance No. 916 must first demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors that they have complied with all the conditions of those laws and receive the expressed written consent of that board BEFORE engaging in such sales.

Any violation of this rule may result in the immediate termination of your rental agreement and permission to engage in any activity at the Anza Community Hall until this violation is corrected. All rents paid for use of the Hall or for a space at the swap-meet will be forfeited when the violation is discovered and you will be instructed to vacate the property immediately.
